

Brief profile of Sunita Sanghi

Smt. Sunita Sanghi is an Indian Economic Service Officer of 1984 Batch. She is currently posted as Senior Adviser in Ministry of Skill development and Entrepreneurship. She has been actively involved in shaping the Skill Development & Employment landscape in India since 2008. She was involved in putting in place Coordinated Action on Skill Development including National Skill Development Coordination Board in Planning Commission; National Skill Development Corporation and Prime Minister's Council on Skill Development. She organized the meetings of National Skill Development Coordination Board in erstwhile Planning Commission; coordinated five sub groups setup for various facets of skill development and provided inputs for PM's Council meetings. She played critical role in drafting first National Policy on Skill Development, 2009 and setting up of NSDA. She coordinated the work of the Report on Sub-Group of Chief Ministers on Skill Development in 2015 and spearheaded at NITI Aayog compendium titled "Skilling for Employability: Best Practices". She was holding charge of Director General, National Skill Development Agency, a regulator. She has participated in various prestigious national and international fora as a distinguished speaker to deliberate on various skill development and employment issues. She has published articles in renowned national and international journals on the subjects on employment and skilling. She has addressed various challenges in the skill and employment space through her research work.

***